

Ch-30

Direct and Indirect speech

Date-27/01/26

➤ Direct speech:-
meaning- When we say the actual words of the speaker is called direct speech.
Eg. Reema said, "We are not going to picnic"

➤ INDIR Indirect Speech:-
When we report what someone said is called indirect sentence.

✓ Eg. Reema said that they were not going to picnic.

Rules-

- [1] Remove inverted commas for indirect speech.
- [2] Change in pronoun.

Direct Speech	INDIRECT Speech
I	he / she
We	they
Me	him / her
Us	them
My	his / her
Our	their
You	he / she / it ^{we} / they
Your	his / her

- ✓ • [3] Change in Verb tense.

Direct Speech	Indirect speech
Simple present	Simple past
Present continuous	Past continuous
Simple past	Past Perfect

am is are

was were

• [4] Change in Modal Auxiliaries

Direct speech

Indirect speech

may → might can → could will → would must → had to have → had

• [5] Change in Marker

Direct → Indirect Speech
now → then here → there ago → before today → that day yesterday → the day before last evening → the evening before

Let's revise

- B]
- 1] They said, "they would not go to the park that day."
 - 2] Ali said to his sister that it was her turn to play.
 - 2] Ali told to his sister that it was her turn to play.
 - 3] Richa's mother told her that her ^{father} was busy writing letters.
 - 4] Lalita told Mrs Suri that he could fetch the cat from the tree.