

15 Adverbs I: Manner, Place and Time

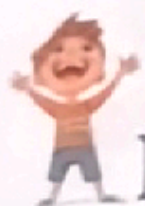

Revision

You have learnt in Book 3 that many adverbs can be formed by adding -ly or -ily to adjectives and other words.

A Form adverbs from the following words with the help of -ly or -ily:

- | | |
|------------------|------------------|
| 1. careful | 6. bold |
| 2. slow | 7. tidy |
| 3. cruel | 8. sure |
| 4. happy | 9. true |
| 5. near | 10. steady |

Kinds of Adverbs

Like adjectives, there are different kinds of adverbs. We shall now look at three of them.

Adverbs of Manner

- (a) Salim arranged the books neatly on the shelf.
(b) He has done well in all the examinations.
(c) Jeff laughed happily.

In (a), the adverb neatly tells us how Salim arranged the books.

In (b), the adverb well tells us how he has done in the examinations.

In (c), the adverb happily tells us how Jeff laughed.

An adverb which tells us how an action is done, will be done, or has been done is called an adverb of manner.

One can say, therefore, that an adverb of manner answers the question: 'how?'

B Fill in the blanks with suitable adverbs of manner chosen from those given within brackets:

1. John was falling behind, for he was walking too (fast/slowly).
2. We could not sleep for our uncle was snoring (loudly/silently)
3. 'Do your work, ' said our teacher. (boldly/quietly)
4. The wounded soldier walked to the nearest camp. (carefully/painfully)
5. The manager of the hotel asked the guests to sit down. (angrily/politely)
6. The farmer worked to make crops grow in that rocky soil. (hard/sadly)
7. You must be dressed for the party. (poorly/properly)
8. The audience waited for the play to begin. (eagerly/happily)
9. He was late, so he packed his bag and left. (neatly/quickly)
10. What is worth doing, is worth doing (badly/well)

Adverbs of Place

(d) Examples are given below.

(e) He was standing outside.

(f) 'Come inside—it is raining,' said Mother.

In (d), the adverb below tells us where the examples are given.

In (e), the adverb outside tells us where he was standing.

In (f), the adverb inside tells us where Mother wanted us to go.

An adverb which tells us where something happens, will happen, or has happened is an adverb of place.

In other words, an adverb of place answers the question: 'where?'

C In the sentences given below, the underlined words are all adverbs of place. Note how they have been used, and then make a sentence of your own with each of them.

1. As soon as the bell rang the students went back to their classrooms.
2. You can sit anywhere you like.
3. Dark clouds were gathering overhead.
4. The window was smashed and pieces of glass lay everywhere.
5. Come here and look at these photographs.
6. The pirates have hidden the treasure somewhere on this island.
7. Nowhere in this city will you find such beautiful flowers.
8. He lives quite far from school.
9. As soon as the car drew near, we could see that the driver was Vikram.
10. Don't go out now, it is still raining.

Adverbs of Time

- (g) We have a music class today.
 (h) 'My father will come home soon,' Piku informed the visitor.
 (i) 'Stop talking at once!' said the man in the library.

In (g), the adverb today tells us when we have a music class.

In (h), the adverb soon tells us when father will come home.

In (i), the adverb at once tells us when to stop talking.

An adverb which tells us when somebody does something/will do something/has done something, or when something happens/will happen/has happened is called an adverb of time.

An adverb of time answers the question: 'when?'

D Fill in the blanks with suitable adverbs of time chosen from those given within brackets:

1. 'Don't wait for ; do it today,' said my father. (tomorrow/yesterday)
2. I have never eaten this kind of food (ago/before)

3. The doctor said, 'You must take this medicine to bring down your fever.' (immediately/late)
4. Hari said, 'I shall be anxious. So, write to me and let me know how you are.' (afterwards/soon)
5. Please wait. Your turn to sing will come a little (later/soon)
6. It is better to be than when you know that others will be waiting for you. (early/late; early/late)
7. You must work hard, so that you can enjoy yourself
