

CHAPTER 8 MR. WILLY WONKOA'S CHOCOLATE FACTORY

Deep Dive – Answers

1. Reference to Context

“Grandpa Joe was ninety-six and a half...”

RECALL

a. Who were the other members in Charlie's family apart from Grandpa Joe?

Apart from Grandpa Joe, Charlie's family included Grandma Josephine, Grandpa George, Grandma Georgina, his mother, and his father.

INFER

b. Which words in the sentences given above mean the opposite of 'strong'?

The words are “delicate” and “weak.”

ANALYSE

c. Why do you think Grandpa Joe and the others became so lively when Charlie visited them in the evenings?

Grandpa Joe and the other grandparents loved Charlie very much. His visits brought them happiness, warmth, and excitement. Listening to Charlie and telling him stories made them forget their tiredness and feel young and joyful again.

2. Reference to Context

“Of course it's impossible!... But Mr Willy Wonka has done it!”

RECALL

a. What had Mr Willy Wonka done that was completely absurd?

Mr Willy Wonka had invented chocolate ice cream that stays cold for hours without being kept in a refrigerator, even when left in the hot sun.

b. What were some of the other things Mr Willy Wonka could do?

Mr Willy Wonka could:

- Make sweets that change colour every ten seconds
- Create sugar balloons that can be blown up and eaten
- Make blue birds' eggs with black spots that shrink in the mouth and turn into a tiny sugary baby bird

INFER

c. Why do you think Grandpa Joe found what Mr Willy Wonka had done to be completely absurd?

Grandpa Joe found it absurd because such inventions go against normal logic and science. Ice cream melting in heat is natural, so making it stay cold without refrigeration seems impossible.

ANALYSE

d. Based on your reading of the text, what do you think about Willy Wonka's factory and inventions? Is it possible to do what he has done?

Willy Wonka's factory appears magical, imaginative, and extraordinary. His inventions seem impossible in real life, but within the story they create a sense of wonder and excitement, showing the power of imagination.

Read, Reflect and Write

1. How does the author show us that Charlie and his family were not very well off?

The author shows this by mentioning that Charlie ate watery cabbage soup for supper and that all four grandparents had to share one bed, which indicates poverty and lack of comfort.

2. How does the chapter end? Does it make you want to read the book? Explain your answer.

The chapter ends with Grandpa Joe describing Willy Wonka's amazing inventions, making the reader curious about the factory. Yes, it makes us want to read the book because the descriptions are exciting, magical, and full of mystery.
