

TREE HOUSE HIGH SCHOOL, SHEWALEWADI
SUBJECT: SOCIAL STUDIES
CH-13 POLITICAL DIVISIONS OF CENTRAL INDIA

Q: Answer the following questions:

1) What is Bhimbetka known for?

Ans – Bhimbetka is known for its prehistoric rock art.

2) Why is Madhya Pradesh sometimes called the heart of India?

Ans – Madhya Pradesh is sometimes called the heart of India as it lies in the centre of India.

3) Why are many features located in Jharkhand?

Ans – Many factories are located in Jharkhand as the state has a lot of iron and coal which are used in many industries.

4) What are the main occupations of the tribal people in these states?

Ans – The main occupation of the tribal people in these states are making handicrafts and ornaments.

5) What are some of the things that are made from the trees in the forests of Chhatisgarh?

Ans – The trees in Chhatisgarh are used to make resin, incense, medicines and beedis.

6) Write two sentences each about two old monuments in Telangana.

Ans – In Warangal in Telangana there is thousand-pillar temple which is about 800 years old. There is also the Golconda Fort which is many centuries old.

7) In what two ways are these four states of central India similar?

Ans – The four states of central India are similar as much of the land is rocky and it is mostly very hot and dry there.

Q: Picture Study:

1) Charminar, Hyderabad – Charminar has four tall towers, which is why it is called Char-minar. It is a famous symbol of the city and is surrounded by busy markets selling bangles and sweets. Many people visit it every day to see its beauty.

2) Marble rocks near Jabalpur in Madhya Pradesh - They are tall rocks made of white marble. The Narmada River flows between these rocks. The rocks look very beautiful, especially in sunlight. Many tourists visit this place to enjoy boat rides.

3) Steel plant in Bokaro, Jharkhand - It is a very big factory that makes steel. Steel is used to make bridges, buildings, and machines. Many people work in the Bokaro Steel Plant.