

Poem- Mr Nobody

Question-Answers

I) Reference to Context

*"He puts damp wood upon the fire
That kettles cannot boil;
His are the feet that bring in the mud,
And all the carpets soil."*

a) Who is blamed for putting damp wood upon the fire?

Ans: Mr Nobody is blamed for putting damp wood upon the fire.

b) What is the effect of the damp wood?

Ans: The damp wood puts out the fire, thus hindering cooking and preventing kettles from boiling.

c) What soils the carpets?

Ans: Mr Nobody comes inside the house with muddy shoes and soil the carpets.

II) Answer the following

a) Who is Mr. Nobody in the poem?

Ans: Mr. Nobody is an imaginary character blamed for all the small mischiefs and accidents in the house. He never appears, but everyone agrees he is responsible for everything that goes wrong.

b) What are some of the things Mr. Nobody is blamed for?

Ans: He is blamed for breaking plates, tearing books, spilling ink, bringing mud into the house, and leaving doors open. He also forgets to oil squeaky doors and puts damp wood on the fire.

c) Why do you think no one ever sees Mr. Nobody?

Ans: Mr. Nobody is imaginary. He represents how people avoid taking responsibility for their own actions by blaming someone who doesn't exist.

d) What is the main message of the poem?

Ans: The poem teaches us that people often try to avoid blame by making excuses. It gently encourages readers to accept responsibility for their actions.

III) Multiple Choice Questions

What does Mr. Nobody do to the books?

- A) Reads them
- B) Tears them out
- C) Returns them
- D) Draws in them

According to the poem, whose boots are lying around?

- A) Father's boots
- B) Everyone's boots
- C) Our boots
- D) Mr. Nobody's boots

What is said about the squeaky door?

- A) It has been fixed
- B) It never squeaks
- C) It always squeaks
- D) It was left open by the dog

What is the tone of the poem?

- A) Angry
- B) Sad
- C) Humorous
- D) Scary

Why do the curtains fade, according to the poem?

- A) They are washed too often
- B) Mr. Nobody leaves the blinds open
- C) The sun is too bright
- D) Someone paints them